

Concerns about the coronavirus pandemic

Residents aged 50 and over in Jefferson County, Kentucky are concerned about the coronavirus pandemic and are taking positive steps to avoid infection.

A LARGE MAJORITY OF OLDER RESIDENTS OF JEFFERSON COUNTY ARE CONCERNED ABOUT THE CORONAVIRUS

WORRY THAT THEY OR A FAMILY MEMBER

73%
will contract the virus

63%
will die from the virus

58%

WORRY THAT A PRE-EXISTING CONDITION WILL PUT THEM AT GREATER RISK

WORRY THAT A VACCINE WILL NOT

55%
be found in the next year

61%
be safe [due to the rush]

THINGS RESIDENTS ARE DOING TO AVOID CONTRACTING THE VIRUS

92% washing hands more often

96% wearing a face mask

73% sheltering at home

53% working from home (among those employed)

53% canceling travel plans

54% canceling plans to attend a large family gathering