

Disruptions in employment during the coronavirus pandemic

Significant numbers of older employed Jefferson County residents have had to change their work arrangements due to the coronavirus pandemic, and some have revised their retirement plans.

MANY RESIDENTS 50 AND OVER IN JEFFERSON COUNTY HAVE EXPERIENCED CHANGES IN THEIR WORK ARRANGEMENTS

Men are the most likely to say they plan to continue to work part-time during retirement.

52%

changed them to avoid exposure to the virus

37%

changed them because their job has changed

10%

changed them because their children are attending school virtually

RESIDENTS WHO PLAN TO WORK DURING RETIREMENT

15%

full-time for pay

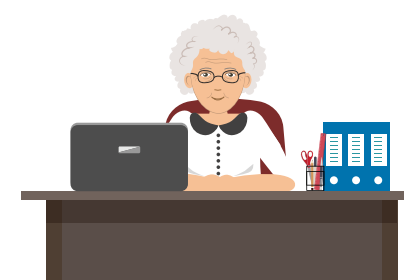

49%

part-time for pay

OTHER PLANS DURING RETIREMENT YEARS

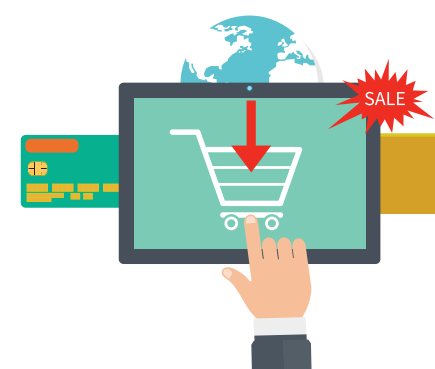

61% engage in hobbies or travel

16% do not plan to retire

48% volunteer

10% start a business